

Linking Policy

Use of links

Linked websites are not under the control of Hamilton County. Hamilton County accepts no liability for the availability or content of those sites. Linked websites are presented strictly as a service to the user.

Linking to www.hamiltontn.gov

It is not necessary to get permission to link to www.hamiltontn.gov or any of its elements. When linking to any element or sub-page please use the base URL www.hamiltontn.gov/

Never present our content or elements as your own and never format your pages to resemble Hamiltontn.gov pages.

Hamiltontn.gov links

All links provided are provided as a service. Hamilton County cannot be responsible for condition or content of any link. Links are provided to promote programs, services, policies, and welfare of Hamilton County.

No links will be provided without review and approval. All links provided will be considered by these criteria:

- All links must benefit the citizens of Hamilton County
- All links must fit the service and purpose of the webpage on which it is presented.
- Federal, State and Local Governmental links maybe used
- Links to an entity whose activities are in support of the purpose of the webpage on which it is presented may be used.
- Links to Internet tools and services, or links providing information for this website may be used.
- Links for businesses will not be linked unless required to fulfill the goal of the department sponsoring the webpage on which it is presented.
- Links from www.hamiltontn.gov pages will be reviewed periodically and removed if they no longer fit these criteria.

This list of criteria does not exclude other criteria that may be considered.

Hamilton County will not enter into reciprocal link agreements.

Please contact Webmaster@hamiltontn.gov concerning any link found on these pages that seems inappropriate or does not fit the above criteria.

Use of this website indicates an understanding of these preceding considerations. This disclaimer may be modified without notice at any time.