Jordan Karnbach Joins County Mayor's Office as Deputy Press Secretary

HAMILTON COUNTY, TN (December 11, 2025) — Hamilton County Mayor Weston Wamp today announced his appointment of Jordan Karnbach as the county's Deputy Press Secretary. With a strong background in local media, Karnbach brings a deep understanding of newsroom operations and community storytelling, positioning her as a valuable addition to the County Mayor's Office.

"Jordan brings meaningful experience from her time reporting at News Channel 9 and Ole Miss, and we're thrilled to welcome her to our team," said Mayor Wamp. "Her arrival comes at an exciting moment for Hamilton County with transformative initiatives underway that will be strengthened by her skills communicating with the public."

Karnbach most recently served as a Communications Specialist at the University of Mississippi, where she created content that supported the university's mission and deepened its connection with students, families, and the community. Prior to that, she worked as a general assignment reporter and fill-in anchor for Chattanooga's

ABC/FOX affiliate, News Channel 9, gaining experience in fast-paced, deadline-driven communication. She frequently covered county government and was known for her clear, confident on-air presence.

“Chattanooga became home to me nearly four years ago, and my time reporting across Hamilton County allowed me to meet so many remarkable people whose stories shaped my connection to this community,” said Karnbach. “I’m honored to return in this capacity and look forward to elevating Mayor Wamp’s communications efforts while serving a place I’m proud to call home again.”

Originally from South Florida, she earned a bachelor’s degree in Communications and Digital Media Studies with a minor in Film Studies from Florida State University and is currently pursuing a master’s degree in Integrated Marketing Communication at the University of Mississippi.

Karnbach is filling an existing, budgeted position in the County Mayor’s Office and will work alongside Press Secretary Haley Burton to advance the priorities of the Wamp administration.
