County Mayor's Office Names Paris Vinnett as Director of Communications
Mary Francis Hoots Elevated to Deputy Chief of Staff

Hamilton County Mayor Weston Wamp has appointed Paris Vinnett as the county's Director of Communications. A dynamic communications professional, Vinnett brings nearly a decade of experience in local government with a strong background in media relations and community engagement.

"Paris is a gifted communicator with a proven ability to connect citizens with their local government," said Mayor Wamp. "We are grateful she has joined our office as we enter an important year of following through on major initiatives ranging from career and technical education to roads and infrastructure improvements."

Vinnett currently serves as Press Secretary for the City of Chattanooga and previously served as the Director of Communications for the City of Kenner and Jefferson Parish Public Schools in Louisiana. Throughout her career, she has led strategic campaigns that effectively communicated key administrative priorities and elevated public engagement.

"I'm honored to join Mayor Wamp's administration and contribute to the important work happening across Hamilton County," said Vinnett. "Effective communication is an essential part of good governance, and I look forward to serving our residents with clarity, integrity, and purpose."

She holds a Master of Public Administration from Louisiana State University and a bachelor's degree in marketing from the University of New Orleans. Vinnett's proven ability to translate policy into clear, compelling messaging will support Mayor Wamp's commitment to transparency and effective communication.

Previous Director of Communications, Mary Francis Hoots, has shifted into the role of Deputy Chief of Staff, assuming many of the responsibilities of the former Director of Operations position. This reorganization is budget neutral.
